BlastBeat

This award was presented to the St. Mary's Blast Beat Team member Alan Keane for his and the Team's work. The text of the award reads - Award Presented to Alan Keane of the Company - Fusion Music - St. Mary's College Rathmines, Dublin in recognition of achieving the accolade of 'Best Photographers & Multi-Media Manager' as part of the 2005/2006 Coca-Cola BlastBeat - Music & Multi-Media Company Programme.

BlastBeat is a competition sponsored by Coca-Cola where each participating school runs a music promotion company that must stage a battle of the bands event. The teams are judged on how they run the event, its commercial success and the quality of the presentations that they give to the organisers. There are several stages culminating in a final round where the school companies vie with each other in the Radio City Music Hall. Several bands from St. Mary's also took part in the competition.

OBITUARY

RORY MOORE R.I.P.

(St. Mary's College 2004-05)

Rory Moore came to TY in St. Mary's from London in September 2004. The change was difficult for him – especially as he had recently suffered the loss of his closest friend in a freakish accident.

One of Rory's close relatives remarked that Rory was "popular, he was sensitive and loving, he was a doer for others, especially his less privileged peers; he was non-judgmental about them and kind towards them".

Rory Moore, R.I.P.

Suffering and death are mysterious enough, but when death is so sudden for someone so young, it is the bereaved who suffer from the tragedy of it. Rory's death has shocked and saddened us all: especially his Mum and Dad, his sisters, his relatives, and all his friends. We offer them our sincere sympathy.

There is no such thing as death without tears, even for the Christian. A young and sudden death makes us ask: why? Why did it have to happen?

He returned to London after one academic year in St. Mary's, moving to a new school there, where he had settled down well since Christmas.

The sudden accidental death of Rory, in a fall from a high window in a friend's house, has shocked us all, especially his peers in 4th Year. He is buried beside his friend in London. May we one day celebrate with him at the banquet of eternal life.

Fr. J. Flavin, CSSp

SCOUTING 2005-2006

The 2005/2006 academic year, once again, saw an increase in the number of pupils involved in Scouting.

As in previous years, we had a full Cub pack made up of boys in 4th and 5th class, in the Junior School. Max Smyth, who ran the Cubs for the last six years, retired, during the year, following a work move to Cork. The Cub pack is now run by Katie Mooney and Stephen Hutton, together with their three assistant Cub leaders.

The two Scout troops, (the 6th and 7th Scout troops) continue to do well with over 55 members (boys in 6th class to 4th year). The Scout troops are run by Daniel Carvill (6th) and Gavin Fogarty (7th) and they are assisted by eight other Scout leaders.

We were delighted to be able to re-open our Venturer group last September. It has been a number of years since we last had Venturers in St. Mary's. The Venturer group is run by Liz Elliott and two other Venturer leaders. The Venturer group currently has twelve members.

This year our Cub pack went on summer camp in Altringham in Manchester. Congratulations to Leo Phelan who was awarded Cub of Camp. The 6th and 7th went on a joint Scout camp to Switzerland. The Venturer's undertook an expedition to Italy and Croatia.

Finally, this year Karl McBrien retired as Group Leader, having been in charge for the last seven years. The new leader

6TH TROOP, SUMMER CAMP.

With 3 patrols ably lead by Ben Shaffrey, John Jones and the combined brain power of Odhrán Byrne and Brian Bourke, camp was set up to be never dull. Due to a fault in the train line, to and from Italy, the Swiss had routed all traffic through the line that happened to pass directly behind our campsite but, thankfully, for the first night only!

Our days on site were spent rock climbing the Alpine slopes, crate stacking, t-shirt printing, having snow fights on glaciers, or having fun down in the local swimming pool. At the pool, the scouts fought to rule the inflatable shark and learned the art of diving from the 1 and 5 metre diving boards.

On one of many adventures in the surrounding mountains, the Alps reminded us all of its power when a group from the 6th and 7th battled through a thunder and lightning storm

(during which they couldn't even touch the mountain side for risk of electrocution) to overnight at the Fruindehutte at 2,566 metres. It was a very relieved and slightly frazzled group which returned to Kandersteg the next day. As always, when camping, we were dependent on the weather and, for the most part, we were lucky.

The city of Bern was explored for the summer camp city visit; bears were photographed and local cuisine was tried out; in the form of a little known restaurant called the Golden Arches.

A hard fought Patrol Competition was run throughout camp, with the Panther Patrol emerging victorious on the final day of competition.

VENTURER, Summer Camp

11 Venture Scouts, 4 leaders, 2 countries, 1 goal ... the summer camp of a lifetime! And, as leaders, we were there, mostly, to facilitate and help organise ideas – which the Venturers came up with. This is the freedom of Venture Scouting.

This was the last Venture Camp for Section Leader, Liz Elliott and the first for Colm Quinn, Brendan Shortt, Shane Timmons, David Shaffrey, Conor McGlade, James Mullen, William Parkinson, Ruth McCullough, Colette O'Neill, Eimear Byrne and Catherine Egan.

Italy was the first destination, a sunny city at the North-Eastern coast, on the border to Slovenia, called Trieste. After three days of camping with the Italians, we travelled on through the night, across Slovenia, to our main destination of Pula, on the North-Western coast of Croatia. The small island-campsite, about three miles off the coast, did not meet our needs, unfortunately. However, within a day, the perfect site was found, on the mainland, and then followed eight days of sun-soaked activities and fine scouting cuisine. One night in Venice concluded the camp – which set very high standards, indeed, for the years to come.

SPORT IN ST. MARY'S COLLEGE 2005-2006

Senior Cup Team Report 2005-2006

St. Mary's 34 – 22 St. Gerard's
Our first Cup match was against a strong St. Gerard's side, which had eight players returning from the side that had beaten Terenure the year before. Some newspapers had them down as favourites, as we had only two players from last year's side returning. With two Irish School's players, Kyle Tonnetti (outhalf) and Burschi Wojnar (backrow) we knew this was a team full of confidence and that we would have to be on top of our game. Straight from the kick off, Cowhey "put snow on it", as John Wynne would say, and Shane Timmons sprinted up and smashed Burschi Wojnar back about 10 yards; it certainly set the tone for the game. Our pack was well on top, securing possession at the rucks and line-out and Cowhey orchestrated the backline magnificently. Cowhey landed a penalty in the first few minutes and then, on the 8th minute, Ray Crotty slipped three tackles to score in the corner. From the touchline, Cowhey converted. We were putting Gerard's under all kinds of pressure. In the 20th minute St. Gerard's had a scrum five metres out, in front of their own posts. Marc McKay and Darran Kennedy drove our scrum forward, which allowed Padraig Lalor to put pressure on their scrumhalf and, being the scavenger that he is, he snaffled the ball away from him and went over for a try. Cowhey converted. Then, just before half time, from another scrum, Jack Buggy attacked the blindside and steam rolled the Gerard's fullback (much to the delight of the St. Mary's past pupils). Once again, from the touchline, on fire, Cowhey converted. Just after half time, Cowhey struck another penalty. A few minutes later, we had a line out and decided to go for them up front. We put together a strong rolling maul which allowed Eamon Moran to get over the line to make it 34-3 by the 51st minute. Unfortunately, from them on, we took our foot off the gas and St. Gerard's came back strongly to make the score at full time 34-22. The final scoreline gave us a lot of food for thought as faced into the next round.

St. Mary's 13 – 10 Castleknock
That week in training we upped the physicality and intensity as we were aware of how big Castelknock's pack was. All the hype in the media was about Brian Collins, the Ireland U19 outhalf and Neil Cowhey, the Leinster U18 outhalf, both of whom had "man of the match" performances in the previous round and who would come out on top. Castleknock had some other very good players also, including the Ireland U19 No. 8, Tom Walsh and the Leinster U19 prop Ruaidhri Murphy and backrow Eoin Cummins. We were all a bit edgy that week at training. I remember, at a forwards lineout session, myself and Slowey getting into a bit of a scrap, which was probably quite a positive thing as it got all the forwards into the right frame of mind for the game. We started off brightly, Cowhey's out of hand kicking was superb – although he did miss a few shots at goal, including one in front of the posts!. Our lineout and scrum were functioning well. The game was played mostly around the halfway line and the tackling from both sides was fierce. The opening score of the game didn't come until the 27th minute when Collins got a drop goal. For the last ten minutes of the first half Castleknock upped the ante. From a Castleknock lineout, Collins received the ball and slipped through our defence to score the first try of the game. He then converted and Castleknock led 10 – 0 at the break. At half time, Mark Sexton came on for the injured Ray Crotty and Conor McGlade switched from second centre to right wing. In the 42nd minute we were awarded a penalty which Cowhey slotted to make the score 10–3. A few minutes from normal time, we had a scrum, to the left, in Castleknock's 22 and Cowhey attacked the blindside and sent a long pass to Colm Quinn, who raced over the line in the corner. Cowhey's conversion attempt hit the post and the score remained 10–8, with a minute or so to go. Castleknock regathered Collins perfect restart, which put us under huge pressure. Poor decision making by Collins relieved some of the pressure however. From the bottom of a ruck Mark Sexton nudged the ball forward with his right boot, just as the 'Knock scrumhalf was about to put his hands on it; which the ref believed to be a knock-on and awarded us a scrum. It was the 74th minute, deep into injury time, and Cowhey's ability to overcome his two earlier penalty misses came through.

Finlay delivered the perfect pass to Cowhey; he landed an exquisite crossfield kick into the arms of "the magician" McGlade, who ran the length of the pitch, evading the Castleknock fullback and out-sprinting their winger to the line. What a finish!

St. Mary's 6 – 21 St. Michael's
This was a match that passed us by. We didn't give St. Michael's the respect they deserved, especially after they had beaten a strong Clongowes side. The occasion got to us, which was hugely disappointing. Only a handful of players stepped up on that day – such as Cowhey, Timmons and Quinner and the rest of us were way below average. The most frustrating thing that day was the lack of intensity we brought and there was no urgency about us. St. Michael's, on the other hand, were bitter about losing to us in a "friendly" and were ruthless and determined. They put some good phases together and got over our try-line three times. All we could manage in response was to get a penalty and a drop goal. It was a truly disappointing end to a good season.

I was very proud to be Captain of St. Mary's and it was a huge honour for me. Overall, the season was an enjoyable one. I would like to thank the players for their commitment throughout the year. I would also like to thank David Breslin, Clive Byrne, John Wynne, David Dunne, Kieran O'Donnell and Paul Rock for all their hard work and effort as well as all the good memories.

Junior Cup Team Report 2005-2006

This year's JCT had an excellent season but an ultimately unfulfilling one. Having done tremendously well to reach the Under 13 Cup Final two years ago, the evidence was there that this team contained both potential and an unbelievable spirit.

Following a disappointing away loss to Blackrock, the team picked up to overcome leading schools such as Belvedere College and St. Michael's College. The team's spirit was encapsulated in these wins with committed defence resulting in narrow but well deserved victories.

The team's form continued to improve gradually, as the season progressed. A real turning point in the season was the team's trip up to play Ballymena. This was an overnight trip and it provided an opportunity for team bonding. The team produced one of its best performances to overcome a very physical, and talented, Ballymena team.

The team had a very settled look throughout the year. Killian Grumley Traynor was a solid fullback while Jeff Glynn and Maurice Walsh were threatening presences on the wings, scoring many fine tries. Daniel Barnwell was a very strong runner and was the spearhead of our attack, while being ably assisted by Eoin Moriarty. The team's half back combination of Darragh Fitzgerald and Tim Ryan had an excellent season providing direction and control.

The team's strength lay in the forwards. The frontrow of Shane Clarke, JJ McLoughlin and Niall Croke matched up manfully against bigger opposition. The secondrow duo of Sean Corcoran and David Callanan were good around the pitch and ensured quality possession. The backrow of Ronan Lennon, Gary Blackburn and Brendan O'Connell was as strong as any in the competition. The side was captained by Ronan Lennon and his leadership was evident throughout the year. He was assisted by joint vice captains Brendan O'Connell and Daniel Barnwell. Other panellists included Matthew Creedon, Eoin Carroll, Mark Fallon, Ian Hickey, Daire Horgan and Simon O'Donnell, each of whom made valuable contributions throughout the year.

The Cup draw was very difficult with all the top schools on the same side of the draw. We were drawn against Terenure in Donnybrook. On a wet day, the team produced a spirited and determined performance but in the end it proved not to be enough. Outhalf Tim Ryan was injured in the first half, leading to a shuffling of the backline, with Simon O'Donnell manfully coming in. Despite our dominating possession, Terenure scored a well worked try, which was duly converted. St. Mary's displayed great determination and were dominant especially in the mauls. The team's efforts were rewarded when Eoin Moriarty scored a fine try in the second half. Unfortunately, the conversion was missed as were subsequent penalty chances. With the game in the dying minutes, Terenure scored another try to put daylight on the scoreboard.

Nothing became this team like their final game. The effort, commitment, and ability to fight back was outstanding. The disappointment was considerable after the match, especially in light of the magnificent effort that every team member displayed. It proved to be a disappointing end to an otherwise great season.

Special thanks go to Mr. Smyth and his assistants Alex Kelly, Martin Burmeister and Rory O'Connor for their dedication and application to the job and for greatly contributing to an enjoyable season.

Under 13s Rugby

This year's Under 13 teams were coached by Mr.Moore, Mr. Hughes and Mr. Haydon, assisted by past-pupil, Alan Godfrey. Fr. McNulty was team manager and attended every training session and match to encourage us. We were a very enthusiastic group and up to 70 players (out of a potential 78 1st Years) turned up for training each week. We fielded four teams regularly and great enjoyment was had by us all.

The A Team, led by Stephen O'Carroll and Cillian Barden played 19 games, and won 12 of these. Early on we played Newbridge, RBAI, Terenure, Willow Park, Castleknock, Belvedere, Clongowes, St. Michael's, CBC, Pres. Bray and there were some return games also. We had some tough games but as we had won the majority of them we were in good form for the Fr. Provincial's Cup, in February.

The Fr. Provincial's Cup is played on a league basis by the Holy Ghost Schools. First, we beat Rockwell 27 – 14. Next we lost, away, to St. Michael's, despite a very determined effort on our part. We then went on to beat Blackrock and Templeogue before losing to Willow Park, away. This resulted in our playing an away semi-final against St. Michael's in dreadful weather. St. Mary's put up a great fight, but St. Michael's got the upper hand late in the match and went on to win by 15–7. The whole team had played their hearts out. The team spirit shown by our lads was fantastic, and one of which all were very proud.

There were notable performances all season from Ben Matthews, Eoin Farrell, Cillian Barden, Stephen O'Carroll and Tim Shaffrey. Unfortunately, for some games, we missed the considerable talent of Gerry Gallivan and Matthew Andreucetti due to injury.

The year ended, for the extended squad, with a great night in the school, with parents also in attendance. The coaches complimented us on the spirit in which we played and also the very large numbers of boys who trained and played games during the season. The Cup Team appreciate the support of all their class mates: we also thank our parents and our coaches, in particular Fr. McNulty who helped us so much during the year.

St. Mary's College RFC 2005-2006

- Extract from Report included in St. Mary's College PPU Newsletter –

SENIOR RUGBY:
The goal this year was to consolidate our position in the League and to start to build for the future.

For the 1st XV, pre-season commenced on July 11th, culminating in successfully defending the Navan Tens trophy.

During the season proper we reached the final of the Leddin Leinster Senior Cup for the second successive year, losing a closely fought battle to Clontarf RFC.

We also got to the final of the inaugural AIB All-Ireland Cup, losing to Cork Constitution. Our finest performance in this competition was the semi-final victory over Garryowen.

Last but not least Division One status of the AIL All-Ireland League was secured.

All of this was achieved through incredible commitment and attitude from all the players involved. Their willingness to support each other on and off the field is exemplary.

JUNIOR RUGBY:
Overall a good year, which saw the J1s top the league table and win the play-offs to be crowned winners of the J1 League. They also had a strong Cup run but were beaten in the semi-finals by Seapoint.

The J2s reached the play-offs but were beaten in the semi-final of the League by Blackrock and the semi-finals of the Cup by Seapoint.

The J3s also reached the play-offs but were knocked out in the semi-finals by Greystones. They were knocked out in the quarter finals of the Cup.

The J4s fared very well in the Cup but were beaten by Terenure in the semi-final.

The J5s got to the final of the DP Smith Competition.

The J6s / Over 35s Vets' team were beaten finalists in the Fox Cup.

One of the other highlights of the season was the U20's integration with the junior teams.

U20's RUGBY:
It's great to report a successful season at U20 level. This season we won the McCorry Cup for the third time since 1971.

YOUTH DEVELOPMENT:
As part of the Club's continuing policy of youth development, last summer four players were chosen to travel down under to New Zealand: Philip Brophy, Jack Finnigan, Barry McCormack and Graeme McInerney.

UNDER AGE RUGBY:
A very busy, enjoyable and successful season was had by all our Mini Rugby teams, under 7's through to Under 12's, with as many as three teams in each age group.

REFEREES:
St. Mary's is now a leading club in Leinster in terms of referees supplied to the Branch. We provide nine referees including: Dudley Phillips, Niall Rynne, Dave Donohue and Peter Donnelly.

Paul Flood also has performed as touch judge and 4th official. David Wall has just started doing schools matches and Tony Burke Moran is working as a referees' assessor. Carl O'Meara, Peter Dennehy, and Graeme McInerney are in the development stages.

REPRESENTATIVE HONOURS:
Malcolm O'Kelly is Ireland's most capped player with 80 caps to his credit. Mal was selected for his second Lions Tour but due to an injury he officially did not make it to be a Lion twice over. Denis Hickie has over 50 Irish caps and along with Keith Gleeson, was selected to tour New Zealand and Australia in June. Kieran Lewis got his 1st cap on the tour of Japan. Conor McPhilips was unlucky through illness to be the only player to arrive back from Japan uncapped.

In Leinster, St. Mary's made the greatest contribution of any club to the Leinster squad, with nine players featuring regularly for the Province. The nine players were Emmett Byrne, Keith Gleeson, Denis Hickie, Kieran Lewis, Malcolm O'Kelly, Ciaran Potts, Jonathan Sexton, Christian Warner and Bryce Williams.

Leinster A played 10 games and Cillian O'Byrne, James Norton, Barry Lynn, Emmett Byrne and Ciaran Potts were all capped. Jonathan Sexton also was capped for Ireland U-21s.

Shane Jennings was appointed Captain of the Ireland A side which played in the Churchill Cup and was joined on this trip by Kieran Lewis.

We are also very proud of Mark McHugh and Conor McPhillips, both key players in Connacht's campaigns this season.

We also note that Peter Smyth has taken a position as a Rugby Development Officer in the Leinster area and that Kevin Potts is now the Domestic Games Manager with the IRFU.

6TH ANNUAL UNION BUSINESS LUNCH

The 6th Annual Union Business Lunch was held on Friday 21st April in The Four Seasons Hotel Ballsbridge. Our guest speaker this year was past pupil Simon Burke (Class of 1976), a man described by the Daily Telegraph as a "retail over-achiever". Simon has been Chairman of Hamleys, the toy retailer, and Chief Executive of Virgin Retail, the music retailer. He is now working with Superquinn. He reinforced each anecdote with his eloquent can-do observations on the broader business challenges many of us face. It's fair to say, this event gets better each year.

UNION SPORTS DAY

The weather was against us and the sportsday date of Sunday 2nd April had to be re-scheduled for the following Sunday. A total of 9 teams competed including a team from the current 6th Year – the eventual winners.

THE ANNUAL UNION DINNER

The Annual Dinner took place on the evening of Friday 11th November 2005 in the College Hall with approximately 210 people attending. The guest list was extensive with over 30 guests attending. The guest speaker on the night was Mr. Steve Hennessy. Steve spoke of his connections with the school, both past and present and his words were well received by everyone. Next year the Union will break with tradition and move the dinner to the Fr. Barry Hall.

SCHOOL GRADUATION CEREMONY

The Past Pupils Union and the College co-sponsor the annual Graduation Ceremony for students leaving the College. The President and Vice President were in attendance representing the Union. After Mass everyone adjourned to the Father Barry Hall for the formal Graduation Ceremony. It was preceded by dinner, one which marked the final catering function of Patsy Fogarty in the College. Everyone associated with St. Mary's wish him and Denise the very best of good fortune for the coming years. Heartfelt and moving speeches were delivered after the presentation of prizes by the Captain and Vice-Captain of the School. The concluding speech was made by Denis Murphy, the Dean of the 6th Year students. He reflected on all of the time that he had spent with the boys, on all of the trips that they had been on over the years and he recounted some interesting, some happy and some sad occurrences. It is a wonderful evening and an invaluable means of enabling members of the Union to meet the boys and welcome them into the Union.

PAST PRESIDENT'S DINNER

The Past Presidents' Dinner was held in the Stephen's Green/Hibernian Club on Friday 5th May. Nineteen of the Union's Past Presidents attended with special guest, the current President, Don O'Higgins. Some engaging chat ensued after Don O'Higgins' address on the state of the Union and David Moran's (President in 1998) informative snippets on the present state and well-being of the school.

OBITUARY

We offer our deepest sympathy to the families and friends of the following:

UNION GOLF OUTING

The 2006 annual golf outing was held on a wet, wild and inhospitable day at Edmonstown Golf Club on the 18th May. Some fifty or so hardy members donned their waterproofs and headed into the rain, putting the school motto to the test. The weather did not allow for spectacular scores. When all was said and done, Fred Cogley emerged victorious. Pressing Fred Cogley all the way were Barry O'Donovan, Noel Kenny and Richard Byrne. The visitors' prize was won by Steve Hennessy. The prize for the longest drive went to Terry O'Higgins and that for "nearest the pin" went to Tom Shanahan.

THE ANNUAL FAMILY MASS

The Annual Family Mass was held in the College on Sunday the 6th of November and was celebrated by Fr John Flavin. The Memorial Mass is a celebration of the contribution of Past Pupils and Staff to the St. Mary's ethos and tradition.

TABLE QUIZ

The table quiz took place on Thursday 9th March in St. Mary's College RFC. There were 25 tables battling it out for the honour of Champions 2006. Thanks must go to those who donated some very generous prizes and to Daragh Coleman, the quizmaster.

JUNIOR FUNCTION

The Union's Junior Function was held in The Dropping Well on Wednesday 27th December. The event was very successful with over 100 attending.

HONORARY TREASURER'S REPORT

All our functions, bar one, made a profit. Subscriptions rose slightly. Expenses were roughly in line with last year and we hope to record a small surplus at the AGM.

UNION DIARY

Over 900 members received this year's diary. This year's distribution list saw the diary delivered to Canada, USA, Switzerland and Australia as well as the expected Rathmines, Rathgar and Rathfarnham. The diary is expensive to produce and is funded by advertisements from past pupils. We would like to thank all our advertisers for their support and ask that you in turn, where possible, support them.

St. Mary's College Parents' Association 2005-2006

It was a privilege for me to succeed Leonie Blackburn as Chair of the Parents' Association in September 2005, but not a little daunting too. The monthly meetings of a 22 person committee had proved quite stressful at times in the first year of the Association and now it was all ahead of me again. How fortunate I was though that Helen Murray, Rachel Larney and Patricia Golden all agreed to join me as officers that year to share the leadership responsibility.

As Vice Chair, Secretary and Treasurer respectively, they worked tirelessly to support and promote the aims of the Association over the nine months of our term of office. Helen with her own sub-committee took on a big fund-raising challenge and, through a quiz night and auction held at St. Mary's College RFC, generated over €12,000 in funds for special projects for the school. Elsewhere we discussed and resolved issues at our monthly meetings with the school principals and organised special talks/workshops for parents – two in particular on the subject of Internet usage and security. (Dr. Vincent Molony was our guest speaker on Coping with Adolescents at the AGM in September 2005 and he proved very popular with the large attendance that night.)

The committee year runs, from AGM to AGM, but our term did not end with the AGM! Our biggest challenge was still ahead of us the following month – to organise the annual parents' social event in the Fr Barry Hall. Another sub-committee had worked throughout the summer with the new school catering company, a willing pub owner (with a son in the school), a furniture rental company and a band called Girl Talk to deliver the 'gig of the year' after the 2006 Ryder Cup circus had left town that autumn. A great night was had by all and I still hear people complimenting the event ever since.

A tiring but enjoyable year for me, made possible by the willing participation and encouragement of all the parent class representatives on committee, the principals of both schools, and the President, Fr. John Flavin. Go raibh míle agaibh go léir.

GHANA IMMERSION 2006

From 7th April to 20th April, 2006, twenty six 4th and 5th Year St. Mary's and Templeogue students, along with adults from both schools, Aidlink, the Holy Ghost Order and the parent body, travelled to Ghana as part of an Aidlink and Spiritan run initiative - which aims to keep the issue of Development Education and Aid in Africa to the forefront in St. Mary's. During the trip a Web Diary was prepared by Mr. Denis Murphy. What is reproduced here are extracts from that Diary – the full document can be seen on grammaticus.net/Ghana/diary06.

Friday 7th April
Arrive in Accra.
Overnight in CSSp house, Adenta, Accra

Whatever we told the boys couldn't have prepared them for the sights from the bus. The narrow roads are lined with stalls and shacks and teem with people. It's cultural inversion: whereas Europeans live their lives behind the walls of their homes, in Ghana a home is where you sleep but the street is where you live. The buses crawl through the crowds, while hawkers try to interest us ... Arriving in the calm of the Provincial House was a relief. There's time to sit, relax and let the images of the day settle into some sort of order.

Saturday 8th April
Travel to Sunyani

The road journey took eleven hours. We have two buses, both air-conditioned, and every couple of hours we stopped to stretch, use the bathroom, and change places.... Having the air-conditioning in the buses makes a big difference... Rather than excessive tiredness, cabin-fever sets in as the hours passed. The afternoon began with school stories... Later, the singing started. Supported by an i-pod and speakers... By the day's end it was time to ask for quiet; everybody was tired.

The boys are delighted with the hotel in Sunyani. The water sometimes doesn't flow and broken locks are replaced by bent nails, but the bedrooms are very spacious, they're rooming in two's... We'd dinner at nine pm.... chicken, rice, and chips... They'll be tired of it in a few days but it's plentiful, safe and edible.

Sunday 9th April
Morning Mass. Afternoon relaxation.

The lads looked and felt fantastically well turned out in the white shirts and khakis. Mass was celebrated in the Cathedral by Bishop Matthew and was a relatively subdued affair, it being Lent. It livened up at the end when people were called up to give a contribution... Then the formalities. We were called to the altar before the packed church and formally welcomed... There was silence for our Linguist, Colm Quinn, who went to the pulpit to explain who we were, why we are here, and to ask 'for the road', or permission to leave. We meet the teachers of St. James at 6.00 pm for a briefing on what to expect from our week in school....The lads were buzzing afterwards with excitement and admitted to some nervousness.

Monday 10th April
Attend class St. James School

We walked over the road and up the long driveway to the church, where Fr Dick presided over a Mass for the whole school. The College chapel was full and the youngsters were giving plenty to the hymns... A camera crew from the State TV station arrived to record the visit ... Carl Mullen and Colm Quinn were interviewed on camera as 'linguists' from the visiting schools. It'll be broadcast in the next days... the group (go) over to the classroom block, three (go) into each class .... After lunch Eddie Smith from Concern Universal brought us to a village about an hour's drive away to see a project which involves planting trees as fire-breaks. Michael Fitzsimons was linguist... Afterwards, local volunteers took us in groups of one and two and showed us around their village.

Tuesday 11th April
Attend class St. James School
Attend dinner with Bishop Matthew Gyamfi, Bishop of Sunyani

I asked the boys today what happens in the breaks between classes, or when left on their own. Apparently, they're peppered with questions about family: ...and the rest... St. James, as well as being a secondary school, is also a junior seminary, and some of the boys are studying for the priesthood. Several of our students have been asked if they have considered this...There's a fair bit of teasing in class and general good humour....They're also busy swopping phrases in the respective languages. There's pages of this stuff on the desks: English into Twi, and vice-versa... Our school day finished with an outdoor class given by Mr Hall-Baidoo on African traditional religions and beliefs. The lads were riveted... At lunchtime today the heads were beginning to droop so we introduced compulsory rehydration. The group sat for 30 minutes in the dining room after the food, working their way through the coke-and-water mixture: two litres each, and by the end of it were looking more energetic. Angela Russ from Concern Universal was waiting at 2.30 pm to take us to see Bernard Bempah, whom we met first in 2004. Since then the students from St. Mary's have funded his project, where groups of women learn how to grow mushrooms in bags of compost made from treated sawdust.... The St. Mary's funding from the 2004 visit launched 16 such groups, and there were two journalists there to record the visit. James Speers did the newspaper interview, Cillian Keogh the radio.

In front of the bishop's house were seats for all, neatly laid out in the usual square formation. We sat for a minute or two in absolute silence, under the moonlit African sky, listening to the night sounds. At seven pm, to the second, the bishop came out, dressed in his full robes. We stood as one and he greeted us formally,

Wednesday 12th April
Attend class St. James School

After first class, Mr Hall-Baidoo took us out under the tree for a seminar on the impressions Africans and Europeans have of one another... We were joined by about ten teachers from St. James and invited to put on a class about Irish culture for them...Our final seminar of the morning was given by Nana (chief) Oko Agyemany, a teacher in the school. He described the selection process for the chiefs in the villages... After lunch the lads went outside to practice their Irish dancing for tonight's entertainments in St. James, then got changed for a soccer match against the host school.

We met for breakfast at 8.30, with the lads still talking about last night. Apparently they stole the show with the Irish dancing, pulling Ghanaian fellows up until the entire 600 of them were doing the Walls of Limerick ...we're leaving the hotel at 9.30 am to visit a Concern project involving the rebuilding of a village burnt in a bush fire, and will be doing a spot of manual work for the morning....The drive was supposed to take 40 minutes; we budgeted one hour, and it took two...

...This village was completely burned out eleven weeks ago, and the Irish government gave €5,000 to help buy mattresses, cooking pots, and building tools. The people are very, very poor, dressed in rags with many showing visible signs of poor health. We were supposed to spend several hours here but the mess-up over the journey time meant we'd to rush everything... The afternoon was left free... the teachers went with the boys for a swim... In the evening, the Concern Universal office organised drumming lessons.

Friday 14th April
Travel to Kumasi
Afternoon ceremonies with Spiritan Community

We left Sunyani at 9.45 and arrived in Bantama at 12.15. We are staying in the Holy Ghost house with the novices...

Kumasi is an enormous city with virtually no European residents and Bantama is probably equivalent to the Liberties in Dublin. Kumasi was a big step for the group... there is no running water to be had, anywhere in the neighbourhood, or, it seems, the city. Washing in buckets is a new experience... Here, every single sight, sound and smell are constant reminders that we are in the middle of an African city.

After lunch we go to the Good Friday ceremonies – ceremonies unlike anything we've previously seen. Whereas normally churches are bursting with exuberance, on this occasion the funeral clothes were worn. Songs were hauntingly doleful; Christ had died and was being buried. We all felt a little odd wearing the white shirts. The heat in Kumasi is immense.... We set up a room across from the church where everybody could take time out, and the fellows went backwards and forwards as they felt the need. The ceremonies lasted from 3.00 to 5.00.

We had dinner about six, a huge fish cooked over a fire, with various local vegetables. Afterwards Fr Dick and half a dozen postulants from the house brought the group for a stroll about town, where they had their introduction to the open sewers, the hot dusty streets full of beeping cars, the music belting out from every building, the people calling to them as they passed.

Saturday 15th April
Visit Adamkwame school
Kapro and Kumi water project
Evening Easter Vigil

We are guests at the opening of a classroom block in a village near Kumasi. Aidlink had funded it, with a contribution coming from the money raised in the 24-Hour Fast in St. Mary's. The St. Mary's money put the final touches on the place: doors, window shutters, paint. It looked very well...

In the afternoon, we visited the market but most stalls were closed for Easter Saturday... In the evening, we gathered for the Easter Vigil. A pyramid of bamboos the height of a one-story house had been built in the yard in front of the church. An altarboy was chucking kerosene about with good-intentioned abandon. It flared right up and the first candle was lit. We processed into the church. The vigil went all the way: six or seven readings, adult baptisms, offertory procession, consecration, communion, the works.... It was the liveliest yet and the hours flew.

Sunday 16th April
Easter Mass

The Easter Mass at 10.00 was the noisiest yet. A brass band and extra drummers joined the choir and the processions were spectacular... Following lunch, we lounge about for the afternoon. The 'Immersion' part of the project is coming to an end. Fr Dick takes the fellows for the preliminary debriefing. In the night we go for dinner in a pizza place, with everybody together for the first time this weekend. On the way home from dinner it began to rain, very heavily. The temperature dropped from 37 to 23 – the coolest we've had it.

Monday 17th April
Travel to the Cape Coast

We are travelling to Elmina Village, on the Cape Coast, which is effectively a European-style holiday destination. One bus is designated for sleepers, the other for singers.... The hotel here is on the beach; there's a breeze and a tropical downpour threatens but it's relatively cool (just under 30). We told the boys to relax and rest and to meet back for a swim and dinner (in another hotel) in town

Tuesday 18th April
Visit Elmina Castle
Visit Vocational Training School
Visit Elmina fishing village

We're guests of the parish priest of the town, Fr Francis Amonoo, who plans on bringing us to his school in the morning, then to Elmina Castle in the afternoon... Our first visit of the day was to a vocational training school for girls, which teaches cookery and clothes design. We were met by a dancing conga line of teenage girls in traditional costume; the tour was good. The lads interacted with the girls and the small kids. As usual, there was no sign of the 'missing generation'.... We'd a quick lunch in a hotel on the road.... Then it was on to a national park containing 350 square kilometres of rain forest. After a stiff walk upwards through the trees we had the chance to take a rope walk across the treetops. It turned out to be not one span but a vast circle of suspension bridges connecting one giant tree to another.... We decided to move our visit to Elmina Castle to tomorrow morning.

Wednesday 19th April
Travel to Accra – stay in CSSp house

The lads had a good morning visiting the slave fort in Elmina, although some felt a little self-conscious about their whiteness.... Following lunch we packed the buses, and set off on the three to four hour drive to Accra.... We arrived in Accra to be met by Br Constant, Fr Gabriel and Fr Jas Duncan. It gives a great feeling of completion when you end in the same house that you started in.... Tonight we'll do the formal full-group end-of-tour evaluation session.

Thursday 20th April
Visit Accra market
Leave for home

The group are generally bursting with good feeling: a different bunch than the timid one which arrived here two weeks ago..... We've an hour or two here in the market, then it's back for lunch and packing, and on to the airport to begin the saga of the return.

St. Vincent de Paul Conference 2005-06

The very worthwhile work of the St. Vincent de Paul Conference continued this year with a committed group of 4th and 5th Year students giving their time to a number of ventures throughout the year.

The outgoing 6th Year members had set a very high standard in terms of dedication and maturity. This was well matched by our new senior members, the 5th Years, while an enthusiastic group of 4th Years greatly added to the spirit of the conference. The members elected Eoin Lynagh as president. Declan Harmon was voted in as secretary of the Conference.

The year began with a Mass celebrated by Fr. Kennedy for all of 4th Year, on the Feast day of St. Vincent de Paul, in late September. Several 4th Years joined up as a result of this.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL CAKE SALE

Like in previous years, the main work of the Conference involved visitation in Fatima Mansions, with our sister Conference, St. Joachim's in Rialto. The former Deputy Principal Mr. Noel Doyle is the treasurer in St. Joachim's and remains a vital link between both Conferences. As well as visiting some of the older residents in Fatima Mansions, our 4th Year volunteers helped out in an after school homework club once a week, spending time with some of the younger residents of the area.

During the year we were also involved with the students in St. Michael's House, on Grosvenor Road, helping out at their Christmas party and their sports day.

The Conference has had a link with the women's refuge in Rathmines for a number of years and at Christmas a group of members visited the refuge, accompanied by a rather slim Santa Claus (Eoin Lynagh), to distribute presents to the children staying there. We had a wonderful party with the children and left full of yuletide cheer.

The main fundraiser for the St. Vincent de Paul is our annual cake sale held in December. The cake sale could not go ahead without the wonderful dedication of the mothers from both the Junior and Senior schools who help out.

Particular thanks must go to Aileen McCarthy who has co-ordinated the cake sale for the past few years and who has retired this year as her son Andrew has now graduated from 6th Year. Many thanks Aileen for all your hard work.

Thanks also to all the mothers who give their time throughout the year to help the Conference and, of course, to all the members without whom the St. Vincent de Paul could not function.

THE CAKE SALE(S)

Each year, towards the end of the first school term, a cake sale is held to raise funds for the St. Vincent de Paul Society in the school. A second cake sale is run in the summer term to raise funds for the Holy Ghost Missions. These days run successfully, year after year, with the goodwill and support of our parent and student body and are always a special feature in the school calendar.

SPECIAL ACHIEVEMENTS

FUTURE WORLD LEADERS SUMMIT

Declan Harmon, 5th Year, travelled to Washington from 25th March to 1st April as part of a group of ten Irish students taking part in a Future World Leaders Summit.

In total, over 280 students from around the world took part in the intercultural learning initiative which had a particular emphasis on work in the fields of diplomacy, foreign policy and international relations. Of all the speakers who gave seminars during the trip, two particularly resonated for Declan.

The first was Congressman John Lewis from Georgia, who was one of the principal architects of the Civil Rights movement and worked closely with the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. The second was Ms. Erika Eckstut, a Holocaust survivor, originally from Czechoslovakia. Declan's overall verdict on the trip: educational, inspiring, and immensely fun and enjoyable.

YOUNG SCIENTISTS COMPETITION

The Isopoda of Pollardstown Fen

Three first year students, Rowan Moorkens O'Reilly, Philip Dix and Cillian Barden entered the Young Scientists Competition this year. They studied the variety of Isopods, more commonly known as Woodlice and plotted species presence against habitat.

Thier work took them from wetlands, to forests and under logs in search of the little insects and besides learning a great deal about ecology and species mapping they also discovered a protected area rich in wildlife.

Congratulations to all three but especially to Rowan who spent several days during the summer at the Fen, collecting the early data.

Many thanks to Dr. Evelyn Moorkens for her assistance and inspiration during this project.
